Federal Opportunities

Model Comprehensive and Culturally Appropriate Services for Immigrant Crime Victims. The Department of Justice announces funds for the development of replicable models for comprehensive victim services for crime victims from immigrant communities. Additional funds will be made available for the implementation and evaluation of projects. Public agencies and nonprofit organizations are eligible. The deadline is July 14, 2000. The award for the first year of assessment and planning is $50,000. For more information, contact Michelle Avery at (202) 514-5084 or averym@ojp.usdoj.gov.

Integration of Viral Hepatitis Prevention Services into Existing Prevention Programs. The Centers for Disease Control announces funds for the implementation and evaluation of integrating currently recommended prevention activities for viral hepatitis into existing disease prevention programs with the primary intent to improve delivery of established prevention services that may directly benefit clients served by these programs. State or local public health agencies are eligible. The deadline is June 15, 2000. Approximately four awards for up to $400,000 will be made for the first year of operations. For more information, contact Dr. Joanna Buffington at (404) 371-5460 or eeml@cdc.gov. Also see www.cdc.gov.

Head Start--Higher Education Hispanic Service Partnerships. The Department of Health and Human Services, Administration for Children and Families announces funds to develop models of academic training and partnering between higher education institutions and local Head Start and Early Head Start programs that support Hispanic children and families. Only institutions of higher education are eligible. The deadline is July 12, 2000. The maximum federal share for each project is $150,000 per year. Matching funds are encouraged but not required. Contact 1-800-351-2293. Also see www.acf.dhhs.gov/programs/hsb.

Runaway and Homeless Youth Programs. The Department of Health and Human Services, Administration for Children and Families announces funds to establish or strengthen community-based programs that address the immediate needs of runaway and homeless youth and their families. Applications are solicited in four application areas: 1) Basic Center Program, 2) Street Outreach Program, 3) Transitional Living Program, 4) State Collaboration Demonstration Projects. Public agencies and nonprofit organizations are eligible. Deadlines begin July 3, 2000. Awards range from $100,000 up and require at least a 10% match. See www.acf.dhhs.gov/programs/FYSB.

Smaller Learning Communities Grant Program. The Department of Education announces funds to support the development of small, safe, and successful learning environments in large high schools that ensure all students graduate with the knowledge and skills necessary to make successful transitions to college and careers and to be good citizens. Local educational agencies are eligible. The deadline is July 17, 2000. Up to $250,000 is available for district-wide planning grants. For further information, contact John De Cleene at (202) 260-2195 or smallerlearningcommunities@ed.gov.
